

The mission of Bareks A.Ş. as a polyethylene film producer is; working as a team with our employees, stakeholders, customers and suppliers; to create a safe, peaceful, clear, democratic and profitable environment and maintain the sustainability of it.

In this aspect, our aim is to produce best quality and reliable products which comply with legal requirements, standards, customers / stakeholders' demands and the economic & technical requirements of the market with maintaining sustainability principle during production.

Our company goal is to provide continuous improvement in product safety, quality, productivity as well as to reduce cost and to follow technological developments closely in order to be in the forefront of customer preferences while complying legal/administrative requirements and developing with total quality understanding.