

As a manufacturer of polyethylene film, the mission of Bareks is; in the principle of sustainability, environmental responsibility and "zero occupational accident", to work as a team with all of our employees, our partners, our customers and our suppliers to ensure a safe, peaceful, ergonomic, transparent, democratic and profitable work place to ensure continuity.

In this purpose, our main duty is; continuously improving environment and occupational health & safety activities , raising the awareness of our employees, our partners, our suppliers, our customers, our visitors and including them to our goals.

The points which are emphasized by Bareks are; detecting and eliminating risks that may negatively impact on environment and occupational health & safety and occupational diseases, preventing environmental pollution, reducing and categorizing negative impacts of wastes on environment, minimizing the utilization of natural resources to avoid the excessive usage, and considering about detailed impacts of new investments on the environment and occupational health & safety processes.

While performing all these activities, Bareks gives and undertaking to carry out all legal requirements and other requirements together.